Ranking

The ranking will be according to the day's best time. The starting order will be based on the previous day's results. The sum of the daily stages will give the overall result.

Monitoring of the route will be through a vehicle GPS tracker that will be sealed in the car (it will be installed by the organisation).

The route will be monitored by persons (CPs), and using virtual CPs, which are evaluated from the tracker. The difficulty of the terrain will determine the passage points (virtual CP's) - which will carry a penalty for non passage.

Roadbook

The representation of the course will be by means of a classic road book in combination with GPS - Waypoints (driving to coordinate).

The necessary waypoints will be given out at the briefing in electronic Garmin format. For the purpose of fairness, the display size of the GPS device to be used must be no more than a maximum of 5".
